My dear W. Chapman.

It would give me
great pleasure to see your son, and W.
Jays' Daughter, and if they are still here
I hope to have this pleasure.

I only received your kind letter a few days ago. — Comparing

The present with the past,
You have cause for much thankfulness in this returning Anniversary.

The great experiment of Free labour in the South, which seems to be so successful in Texas, and elsewhere
is very important -
and encouraging -

As to the feeling in England you cannot doubt that it is entirely with you. There may be sad want-
of Faith as to the possibility of Right
being done, here
and every where.

We have been painfully interested in the Harper's Ferry Affair

as a member of God:
express myself with complete freedom on the subject, I think it better to refrain from writing at all" -

He shall be anxious to hear how our
dear friend Mr Sumner bears the work, and the excitement - at
